26th March 1955]

MR. SPEAKER :—" All right, I have no objection. Anyhow, I wish to tell the House that this should not be taken as a precedent. Now, I have agreed, of course with the consent of the House, to guillotine the rest of the Demands at 12-30. If to-morrow some hon. Members were to say that the guillotine time may be extended with the consent of the House from 1-30 to 2 o'clock, it cannot be done. We can minimise the time, but not extend it in regard to this matter. I have to mention all these so that no hon. Member may raise a point of order at a future date.

" Now, the Hon. Leader of the House may formally make a motion for changing the order of Demands."
